""Security Officer of the Year Award Criteria

Purpose:

To recognize a Kansas City area Security Officer who excelled in the discharge of their duties by taking exemplary on-duty action to protect life and/or property.

Eligibility:

Any individual working in a paid position, directly and primarily responsible for providing security-related services to persons and/or property. Law enforcement officers and Security Administrators are not eligible for this award.

Award:

Will be presented at the November luncheon of the Greater Kansas City Chapter of ASIS International. Lunch for the award recipient and one guest will be provided by the chapter.

Criteria:

The successful candidate will:

- 1) Show outstanding performance and/or achievement while on duty.
- 2) Demonstrate professionalism while on duty.
- 3) Provides an elevated level of customer service while on duty.

Nomination Process:

The officer may be nominated only by his employer or site manager. Nomination forms must be submitted no later than October 1.

Selection Process:

The review and selection committee will consist of Greater Kansas City Chapter of ASIS International Board members, Committee members, and/or other active Chapter members who may be selected by the Board. The committee will review all nominations and select a single recipient.
